

OLYMPIC SPECIAL
'Going for gold'
1 Corinthians 9:24-27

Introduction

- the church in Corinth
- the Apostle Paul

1. A teasing question

"Do you not know...?" (v24)

David Garland (BECNT) writes "The use of the (metaphor) would have struck a chord because Corinth sponsored the Isthmian games, a pan-Hellenic festival celebrated every second year and featuring many of the same contestants who competed in the Olympian. The Isthmian games "dominated the highly competitive culture of Roman Corinth" (Horsley)'

2. A simple command

"So run that ..." (v24)

3. A serious purpose

- for himself (v26-27)
- for his readers (v24-25)

OLYMPIC SPECIAL
'Going for gold'
1 Corinthians 9:24-27

Introduction

- the church in Corinth
- the Apostle Paul

1. A teasing question

"Do you not know...?" (v24)

David Garland (BECNT) writes "The use of the (metaphor) would have struck a chord because Corinth sponsored the Isthmian games, a pan-Hellenic festival celebrated every second year and featuring many of the same contestants who competed in the Olympian. The Isthmian games "dominated the highly competitive culture of Roman Corinth" (Horsley)'

2. A simple command

"So run that ..." (v24)

3. A serious purpose

- for himself (v26-27)
- for his readers (v24-25)