

Summer Fellowship on the Barge Tuesday evenings

Long hours?
Tight deadlines? Stress? Pressure?
A boss who doesn't understand?
Can work really be part of God's plan?
What I do at church is what matters, what I do the rest of the time is unimportant. Is this how God sees the situation?

This six-part series draws together a host of experts to bring in-depth teaching and biblical wisdom to bear on everyday issues we face wherever we work—in the home, at the checkout, in the office or in the classroom.
